

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE WORKSHOP

by

JAN KENNADY
NFRW PARLIMENTARIAN

Friday, October 6th - 12:30 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.
Sea Palms Golf and Conference Center

Jan Kennady
Professional Registered Parliamentarian

Jan has written scripts and served as the presiding officer and parliamentarian at state conventions, as well as serving as parliamentarian for numerous associations. Jan has conducted parliamentary law seminars throughout the nation. She currently serves as the parliamentarian of the National Federation of Republican Women.

Jan currently serves as Comal County Commissioner, Precinct 4. She served on the New Braunfels City Council from 1993 to 1996, and completed a three-year term as Mayor in 1999.

In 1998 she was appointed by then-Governor George W. Bush to serve a three-year term on the Texas Commission on Volunteerism and Community Service Board. Governor Rick Perry recently appointed her to a six-year term on the Texas County and District Retirement System Board and he also appointed her to serve on the Alamo Area Regional Review Board.

Jan has served as an officer of over 25 civic, charitable, political and cultural organizations. She has served as president of 14 non-profit groups including the Texas Academy of Family Physicians, the Texas Federation of Republican Women for four years and the Texas Women's Education Foundation.

Jan is married to Dr. Don Kennady, and is the mother of three, the grandmother of five and the great-grandmother of one.