

You, the newly-elected officers of the _____,
are about to enter upon your respective duties. In accepting these posts, you are assuming a leadership role among Republicans and, therefore, setting an example, one which requires the best energy and devotion of which you are capable.

It is not enough to bask in the importance of a new title but in your acceptance of these duties you promise to exert every possible effort to conduct club activities that will attract to your club the talent and tireless work of all women in your community who believe in the Republican Party and its program.

To that end, I ask each of you to raise your right hand and repeat after me your oath of office:

I solemnly swear to live up to the provisions of the governing laws of the National Federation of Republican Women, the Georgia Federation of Republican Women and _____, and to discharge all duties incumbent to my office to the best of my ability.

I now declare you duly installed officers of the _____
For the years _____.

Ask the incoming President if she wishes to make remarks.
